MONDAY MORNING, DEC 28, 1863

By the Steamer.

The Oregon, which arrived last night, brought very meagre dispatches, that are only one day later than those received by mail. The burning of a soldiers' hospital at York town, Va, and the chance of the capture of the stolen Chesapeake on the Nova Scotia coast, are the only items of interest. The report of the Pacific's mishaps in another column makes us suppose that she did not arrive at San Francisco in season to leave on her regular day; we shall therefore be compelled to depend upon the mail for news, until the last of the week, and perhaps longer. It is rather hard in these times, to be a long ways outside of the rest of the world, but as we have a fair prospect of being in communication with the rest of the human family before long, we patiently submit to present inconvenience and delays.

The Public Printing War.

The Olympia Ananias—pausing in the intelligent and honest performance of his duties as Surveyor General—repeats his oft told lies about the OREGONIAN, and thinks we help Democracy because we don't condemn Mr. Evans for making McElroy Public Printer, instead of giving patronage to the Standard. We have only a few words in reply to the old turn-coat demagogue, whose talk about supporting the Administration is all froth. He supports it only because he holds office under it, just as he supported those of Pierce and Buchanan. Since we have known him, he has been everything by turns, and nothing any longer than it paid. That is his rule and measure of political duty, and when he talks about consistency, he justly invites the ridicule and contempt of all who know him. Of Mr. McElroy's politics we know nothing, but if he is any worse than Henry and his clan, we are much disappointed in the good judgment of the Secretary, who, we think, was perfectly right in refusing any longer to patronize an organ, which has been solely in the interest of base and corrupt men, and by its devotion to the personal fortunes of such a demagogue as Henry, has done more to weaken the influence of the Administration, than all the Democrats in the Territory can do. Its slanderous charges against Gov. Chase—its mean assaults upon Major Goldsborough—its abuse of every man who told the truth about Henry's insolent hypocrisy and utter want of principle—its justification of the course of pretended Union men, who, if in Ohio, "would have voted for Vallandigham rather than an Abolitionist," and its vile and false pretense that the President thought the same—all these have long ago satisfied the friends of the Administration that the only purpose of such a paper was to build up a personal party, and to make itself the chief corner-stone of the institution. It grieves now like a whipped puppy, because it has lost its expected patronage, and has discovered that Dr Henry is not the supreme dictator of the land, and though it threatens the Secretary with a deluge of official wrath, we hope he will not be alarmed. The House by a vote of 15 to 8, and the Council unanimously have approved his action, and we think he can afford to laugh at the impotent rage of his conceited assailant. It would indeed be strange, if a sincere and ardent Republican, who, like Evans, has sustained his party for years while demagogues like Henry were shouting Democracy, should be trampled down at the bidding of a man who, without merit, political or moral, by sneaking, cowardly means, obtained office in a Territory, where not five Republicans justified his appointment—who, against all precedent, got himself ordered to Washington at public expense, for private purposes, and while there persuaded the President—confiding too much in a little old Illinois integrity, long since outgrown—to give a judgeship to his son-in-law, when he knew he had not the first or slightest qualification for such a position, and did many other things that have tended greatly to bring reproach upon the Administration which tolerates and supports him—if Mr Evans, we say, can be driven out of office by such a man, it will surprise us.

But enough for the present—we shall watch the contest, and when we have leisure, will resume our investigation of the right of such a renegade—of such a moral and political bankrupt, to criticise the course of the Oregonian or of any consistent man, who loves truth too well to follow Dr Henry's lead.

THE STEAMSHIP PACIFIC FORFEITED TO THE UNITED STATES.—The Bulletin says the steamship Pacific, lately seized by the Custom House authorities for smuggling opium, has been virtually abandoned by her owners to the United States, they having petitioned the Secretary of the Treasury for the release of the vessel on the grounds of injustice done them, as neither the owners nor captain have been proven to have been interested or connected in the smuggling for which she was seized. The petition is based on the Act of March 3, 1797, which admits of the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion remitting either a portion or the whole of the penalty "if in his opinion the same shall have been incurred without wilful negligence or any intention of fraud in the person or persons incurring the same."

EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to December 18.

BRISTOL, Dec —General Jones's brigade encountered the advance of General Wilcox's corps 2,000 strong near Maynardsville, Union county, Tenn, routing them and capturing a number of prisoners. Wilcox's command is composed of raw troops.

In the Confederate Congress Dr Foote of Tennessee made a speech severely censuring Jeff Davis. He said the President never visited the army without bringing injury—never that it was not followed by disaster. He was instrumental in the Gettysburg affair. He instructed Bragg at Murfreesboro. He opened Georgia to the enemy, [illegible] and exposed South Carolina to terrible destruction. He charged Jeff with having almost ruined the country, and declared he would meet his calumniators to discuss the matter.

WASHINGTON, Dec 14.—The Clerk of the Senate Military Committee, the House Librarian, and several other minor officials at the Capitol, suspected of sympathy with the Secessionists, were to-day relieved.

It has recently come to the knowledge of the Government that there are along the frontier of Canada upwards of 10,000 deserters, many of them in a suffering condition and anxious to return to their regiments. Probably a proclamation will shortly be issued by the President offering a pardon to all who will return to their regiments within thirty days.

The Times correspondence from near Portsmouth, Virginia, says Brigadier General Wild, commanding the colored troops in this department, has undertaken a most important expedition. His brigade left his vicinity on Saturday last (12th), in two columns, one taking a route through Princess Ann county, via Kempsville and Great Bridge, the other following the tow path of Dismal Swamp canal, now for some months outside our lines. The columns united at Hintonsville, North Carolina, whence an advance was made on Elizabeth City, which was occupied without opposition.

WASHINGTON, Dec 14.—Accounts from the Army of the Potomac state that reports were prevalent that Longstreet had succeeded in effecting a junction with Lee, but after due inquiry they cannot be traced to any reliable source.

NEW YORK, Dec 15.—A special dispatch to the Tribune, dated Washington 14th, says Senator Bayard, of Delaware, never having taken the anti-rebellion oath required by the Act of last session, was informally reminded of the fact by the Vice President to-day, and requested to say whether he was prepared to take it. He replied in the negative, adding that if required by a formal vote he should resign. The question will probably be brought up to-morrow, and there is no doubt that if he keeps his promise Delaware will have a more fitting representative.

WASHINGTON, Dec 15.—A special Joint Committee will probably be appointed to consider what legislation is necessary to enable the loyal people of the South to restore their States to the Union on the basis of the President's Message and Proclamation. To this Committee will probably be referred the bills now before Congress on the subject of slavery, and such other bills as may be introduced which bear upon the general topic.

NEW YORK, Dec 15.—A special dispatch to the Times says: Lee's cavalry endeavored on Sunday (13th) to cut Meade's communication with Washington by destroying the bridge across Cedar Creek near Catlett's Station. About 700 rebels made a dash at the guard posted at the bridge, but were driven off after a short fight. The line of the railroad from the front to Alexandria will be protected by both cavalry and infantry hereafter.

The President has yielded to the demand made by the Loyal League representatives. Gen Schofield has been removed, and ordered to report at Washington.

Letters have been received from prominent conservative members of the rebel Congress from North Carolina, asking unofficially upon what terms the Southern States would be permitted to return to the Union.

NEW YORK, Dec 15.—A letter from Morris Island says the rebels are working very hard on Sullivan's Island, increasing their works and shelling Forts Gregg and Wagner. The rebel iron clads occasionally showed themselves, but were always careful to avoid a fight. The rebels are said to be very savage, and do not spare our men whenever they catch them. Reconnoissances were frequently made from the fleet, and much valuable information obtained.

CHATTANOOGA, Dec 14.—Col Watkins' Kentucky brigade returned to-day from a cavalry reconnoissance as far as Lafayette (Ga) at which place they captured a rebel signal station, six officers and forty privates. The balance of the large force of the enemy fled.

Rumors prevail that Longstreet, in his retreat lost 4,000 prisoners and nearly all his cannon and trains. A courier from Knoxville, who arrived last night brings highly encouraging news.

NEW YORK, Dec 15th.—The Herald's special dispatch says McDougall will introduce a joint resolution declaring the French invasion of Mexico as an unfriendly act and inquiring if it will not be the duty of the United States to declare war against France.

The Tribune has private advices from Havana which states that the secessionists there have given over the rebel cause as hopeless. One who had nearly half a million of Confederate funds in his hands, realized on it and fled to parts unknown. It is understood there that the break up of the Confederacy is near at hand.

BOSTON, Dec 14th.—The New Orleans correspondent of the Traveller writes that the expedition of Gen Banks to Texas is a success. Union men are rallying under the standard of Gen Banks in large numbers. All the Texans required was a force to back them up. Gen Banks has mustered two regiments in that State since he landed.

NEW YORK, Dec 15th.—Money in good demand. Sterling, 164¼, Gold a shade easier, closing quiet at 149⅜, Governments firm, seven-thirties 106¾.

CAIRO, Dec 15th.—Steamer Von Phul was fired on by a rebel battery above Bayou Sara on Tuesday evening, Dec 8th. Several shots took effect, considerably damaging the boat and killing Capt Barker, and two deck hands, five others were wounded.

Little Rock advices say 7,000 men have come in since the occupation, 2,000 of whom are now in the Federal army.

WASHINGTON, Dec 15.—Telegrams received here last evening from Knoxville up to yesterday morning state that Gen Foster had assumed command of the troops lately under Burnside, and the latter had departed for Cincinnati. All is quiet in the vicinity of Knoxville. It was stated there on the authority of scouts, that much of Longstreet's artillery etc had fallen into the hands of our pursuing forces. This, however, lacks confirmation. The region in which pursuit is now being made is so far distant from the telegraph as makes it difficult to verify such statements.

From the report of the Secretary of the Interior we have the following:

"At the time of the discovery of the great mineral wealth of portions of the public domain the nation was in the enjoyment of domestic tranquility and unrivalled prosperity, and could well afford to throw open her rich mines of precious metals to the unrestricted enterprise of the world, but having now been forced into a war for the preservation of our national existence of unexampled expense in magnitude, the question whether we can in justice to other branches of industry and enterprise longer exempt this immense source of individual revenue from its equitable share of public burdens becomes of much importance. A small proportion of the profits of the gold mines would largely increase the means of the treasury, and as no good reason seems to exist why the nation should not in this hour of need derive some direct assistance from its extensive gold and silver mines I earnestly press the consideration of the subject with a view to this end.

The attention of Congress is called to the necessity of providing a law for the appointment of a Surveyor General and the establishment of the destroyed Land Office in the Territory of Idaho. Particular attention is invited to the condition of Indian affairs in California. That State has hitherto been divided into two distinct districts, Northern and Southern, each under the charge of a Superintendent and Agent. There is no good reason for continuing the arrangement, and on the score of economy one ought to be abolished.

On the subject of the Union Pacific Railroad the Secretary says: The extent and unsurpassed richness of the gold mines recently discovered in Arizona, together with our previous knowledge of most of the mineral wealth in New Mexico is well calculated to impress all who think upon the subject with the necessity for the branch road to Santa Fe and such other points in the Territory of New Mexico as may be necessary to the development of the mineral wealth and trade of that country, and although Congress may be unwilling to lend pecuniary aid or credit to such enterprise, it is believed that a liberal grant of land both arable and mineral of comparatively little present value to Government, to companies now organized, or to be hereafter chartered by the Territorial Legislature of New Mexico, will insure its speedy construction."

NEW YORK, Dec 16.—A special dispatch to the Tribune says: A letter received from a naval officer on board the flagship Pensacola at New Orleans states that a mutiny is gathering in that among the sailors in that harbor. A great many of these sailors enlisted for one year. Their time has expired, but the Navy Department being pressed for men obtained the issue of an order that no sailors should be allowed to come home, even if their time had expired. This order is regarded as very severe by a portion of our sailors. The officer who writes this information thinks a mutiny will be the result.

A special dispatch to the World, says: Telegrams from the front say the army has not gone into Winter quarters in its present location, and probably it will not do so.

A resolution was offered by Brown of Mississippi impressing all able bodied whites into the army, requiring aliens to quit the country within sixty days or take up arms; to levy a direct tax on all lands and property, including Confederate notes, and to make the latter legal tender after the expiration of six months; prohibiting the buying and selling of gold and silver or United States treasury notes during the war under heavy penalty, violators of the above provisions to be tried by the military Courts alone. No action was taken on the resolution.

A bill is pending in the rebel Congress for the issue of five hundred million coupon bonds bearing six per cent interest, payable in twenty years.

The report of the rebel Secretary of the Treasury places the entire debt of the Confederacy at one billion dollars, $800,000,000 of which are treasury notes; $[illegible],000,000 of these notes are in circulation. The Secretary says the amount needed to carry the Confederacy until the 30th of June 1864 is $[illegible]000,000, and, extending the estimates to include the entire year, the amount will reach $1,000,000,000, which, says the Secretary, Congress is formally called on to provide for. If the Confederacy shall last until the end of 1864, the debt will be $2,000,000,000.

The Herald's correspondent off Charleston says Admiral Dahlgren is preparing for a great move, and that the iron clads will not leave till our flag waves over Charleston or its ruins. Sumter is still the object of a heavy fire. Our guns have all [illegible] the harbor. In the city darkness prevails at night, as Beauregard had ordered the street lamps not to be lighted nor lights in the houses. Nothing but famine and terror rule in the city, and were it not for the military leaders the city would be surrendered. Great activity prevails in both branches of the service.

Another victory has been gained over the rebels in Texas. Official information has been received at the headquarters of the Department to the effect that all the rebel forces at Port Cavallo were captured by the Union troops under General Washburne. The number of the enemy is not known, but an account received previous to the capture placed the number of the garrison at 1,000 men under Colonel Brillhott. A refugee states that two months since there were seven heavy guns and five field pieces at that point. The possession of this position clears the entrance into Matagorda Bay and gives the Union army command of several important places, including Port Cavallo, Matagorda and Saluria. A short distance back from the bay are Victoria and several other towns, all of which are now open to our troops. A large quantity of cotton is accumulated at Victoria, which will probably fall into our hands.

The steamer Thomas A. Scott, from New Orleans December 8th confirms the capture of Port Cavallo by our troops without the loss of a man.

WASHINGTON, Dec 16th.—The Commissioner of Exchange says he has been officially notified by the rebel authorities that they will not receive any more provisions for the prisoners in their hands. The reason of their course is the severe reference to the manner in which the rebel authorities carried out their pledges. This is probably a mere subterfuge, the real reason being the jealousy of the people of Richmond in consequence of the fact that through the care and liberality of our Government and the friends of the prisoners at home, they are said to be living better than any of the families live in the rebel Capital. Commissioner Ould says that here after prisoners will receive precisely the same rations as the rebel troops in the field.

Nothing has transpired in this vicinity of late to change the aspect of affairs as they stood a week since.

Senator Saulsbury of Delaware, also declines to take the anti rebellion oath, required by the Act of the last Congress.

CINCINNATI, Dec 16th.—Advices from Knoxville dated 10th, state that the main body of Longstreet's army was at Rogersville. During the retreat Longstreet lost 4,000 men in prisoners and deserters. There were swarms of fugitives from his ranks, and his army was worn out by hard service and dispirited by retreating. The rebels were suffering intensely for clothing and food. Longstreet abandoned his seige train of six guns, after burning the gun carriages. The guns fell into our hands. Two trains were met between Cumberland Gap and Knoxville, with supplies for the army. There were thirty days supplies at Knoxville when the rebels retreated. The people around Knoxville are destitute, the rebel army having consumed everything eatable. Longstreet's army is represented to be demoralized to an extraordinary degree by hardships and desertion in East Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Dec 15th.—There is a rumor here that Gen Sheridan, commanding the column in pursuit of Longstreet, encountered a heavy reverse in which Gen Sherman was severely wounded. The rumor is not corroborated at headquarters.

YORKTOWN, (Va.,) Dec 14th.—To Major General Butler: I have the satisfaction of announcing the complete success of the expedition sent out under Col West. All worked in successful combination. Our cavalry carried the enemy's camp at Charles City Court House [25 south east of Richmond] after sharp fighting, the enemy firing from their houses—we captured 8 officers and 82 men, being the whole command, and fifty five horses. The enemy's camp equipments, arms, ammunition and provisions were all thoroughly destroyed. Our loss was one killed and six wounded.

FORTRESS MONROE, December 17.—Last evening the hospital at Yorktown took fire. The fire communicated with the bakery, and about half past 1 o'clock the magazine exploded. The fire continued, causing the frequent explosion of shells during the night. About 4 o'clock this morning another explosion took place, and several buildings were destroyed. The above are all the particulars we have obtained as yet. One wounded man arrived here this evening.

HALIFAX, December 17.—The steamer Chesapeake moved to Sambro harbor, 20 miles from Halifax, yesterday. The U S steamer Ella and Annie was informed of the fact, and will be at Short Point early this morning. The Governor of Nova Scotia has issued orders for the arrest of the pirates. There are no other gunboats here.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec 16th.—In the Senate Lane, of Arkansas introduced a bill providing that the traffic in gold, silver and foreign exchange for speculative purposes, or purchase through a broker, by depositing less than the full amount of the purchase, or in what is known as margin, is prohibited. It also prohibits sales, unless actually delivered and paid for on delivery, under penalty of not less than $1,000 nor more than $2,000, and imprisonment from one to twelve months.

Foote introduced a bill granting public lands to the people for a Pacific Railroad and telegraph line by the northern route, and asked that the bill be referred to a special committee.

CHICAGO, Dec 15th.—In the House yesterday Lovejoy of Illinois, introduced a bill providing that all persons held to slavery in the States and Territories be declared free, and that all persons so declared free shall be protected the same as white men now are under the Constitution.

Arnold of Illinois introduced a bill to aid the President in carrying out the immediate execution of the Emancipation Proclamation of January last. Both bills were referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Washburn of Illinois introduced a bill reviving the grade of Lieutenant General and authorizing the President to confer it on any officer not below the grade of Major General, who should distinguish himself by courage, skill, etc. Referred to the Military Committee.

Wilson of Iowa introduced his bill to amend the Constitution, declaring slavery incompatible with free government, and therefore prohibited in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Dec 16th.—The Select Committee on the Pacific Railroad was announced to-day, as follows—Stevens, Wilder, Steele (N Y), Price, Cole, Noble, Donnelly, McBride, McClung, Steele (N J), Ames, Yeaman and Sweet.

In the House to-day a resolution was adopted instructing the Military committee to inquire into the alleged inhumanity of the enemy toward our wounded taken on the field. Numerous other resolutions were introduced, among them being one by Rollins of Missouri, declaring that this House is prompted by a just patriotism in favoring a vigorous prosecution of the war, which was inaugurated by disunionists, that it is the duty of the Government to prosecute the war until obedience to the Constitution and laws shall be secured, and that the war shall not be prosecuted for any purpose of conquest or subjugation. Lovejoy moved to lay it on the table. Lost—50 to 114. Debate arising on the resolution, it was laid over.

In the Senate the House resolution tendering the thanks of Congress to Major General Grant and the officers and men of his command was adopted.

Sumner introduced a bill relative to the claims of American citizens for French spoliation. Laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Ashley, of Ohio, gave notice he would introduce an important bill providing, in accordance with the suggestions of the President's Message and Proclamation, for the establishment of Provisional Governments over the districts in rebellion, and for authorizing the loyal citizens in each district to organize State Governments. The bill confers on the President power to appoint for every district in rebellion a Military Governor, who is to have civil administration until the State Government is formed and Senators and Representatives to Congress elected. Whenever the people desire reorganization of the State Government the Governor is to order an enrollment of the loyal electors. As soon as the number of the latter shall be equal to one fourth of the vote at the last Presidential election, the Military Governor shall order the election of a State Convention, which shall be authorized to form a State Government, provided it be not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States or the President's proclamation of January 1, 1863, and forever prohibits slavery. The new Constitution is to be submitted to the people after its adoption by the Convention, and Senators and Representatives to Congress may then be chosen. All laws under former Constitutions of these districts making a distinction between blacks and white persons shall be abrogated. Any infringement of individual liberty to be punished as kidnapping.

In House Committee on Territories will soon report bill authorizing Nebraska, Utah and Colorado to organize as States, and also a bill to create a new Territory out of some portions of Nebraska.

The bill to increase the pay of the army meets with general favor, and will soon be reported back.

WASHINGTON, Dec 17.—On motion of Mr Wilson, the Committee on Invalid Pensions were instructed to inquire what legislation is necessary to give the widows or legal representatives of persons who have died or may hereafter die, after being discharged from military service from wounds or disabilities received in time of duty, the same pensions as are allowed to members.

On motion of Mr Wilson, the Committee on Public Lands was instructed to report necessary legislation to enable persons in the naval and military service to avail themselves of the benefit of the Homestead Law.

Mr Anderson offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Roads and Canals to inquire into the expediency of improving the upper rapids of the Mississippi river, with leave to report by bill or otherwise.

On motion of Mr McClurg, a resolution was adopted calling for a copy of the report of the Commissioner appointed by the President to examine into the accounts of the officers and men employed in the Western or Missouri department of the army.

Mr Rogers gave notice of a bill to refund to the States, counties, townships, wards, cities and municipal corporations, all moneys paid by them, respectively, for bounties to volunteers in the army.

PORT ANGELES (W T) DESTROYED.—We learn from private sources that the town of Port Angeles, which was selected by Victor Smith as the port of entry for Puget Sound District, was almost entirely swept into the Straits of Fuca, about two weeks since, by the slide of the hill, caused by an overflowing of a pond in rear of the town. The Deputy Collector and three or four others were instantly killed. Dr Gunn, Collector, barely escaped with his life. The Custom House, with all its contents and several other buildings, comprising the main part of the town, are swept away. The residence of Victor Smith, now absent in Washington, was completely crushed, and his wife and family only escaped by the furniture supporting the ruins, thus affording them shelter on the floor. We could not learn any particulars beyond what we have given.

ARRIVAL OF THE OREGON.—The steamship Oregon, Capt Conner, arrived last night, at nine o'clock, much to the relief of parties who had friends or freight on board. Bad weather and heavy fogs were the combined causes of her delay. Purser Wyman has placed us in possession of her

MEMORANDA.—Steamship Oregon, Francis Conner Commander, left San Francisco December 18th at 5 P M, arrived at Esquimault on the 23d at 3 A M, left again on the 24th at 1 P M, crossed the Columbia bar on the 25th at 4 P M, and arrived at Portland on the 27th at 9 P M. The Oregon has experienced unusually severe gales and dense fogs.

PASSENGERS.—Col T English, U S A, and family, Mrs Julia Dean Hayne, Capt O Regan, S Parrish, B [illegible] Lebenbaum, H Cushing, L Lebenbaum, H W Hyman, A Frank, A Jackson, S S Thompson, M Taylor, Mrs Rowley and son, Mrs Ireland, S R Farrish, J Dempsey, M Levy, J A Dempsey, C [illegible], Mr King and lady, Miss Back, Miss J Pierson, Mrs McLaren and family, P Hogan and wife, J Dole, Mrs L Hay, G Mortimer, C R Watkins, Mrs Conney, F White, J L S [illegible], J Pinney, A Carr, H [illegible], C A Angelo, Miss J Wright, J Throp, Mrs Fasign, Miss Angelo, P Cohen, A R Phelps, J Kelly, J Smith, Mr [illegible], Wm Wright, J S Russell, Wells, Fargo & Co's Messenger, and 56 others.—226 tons of freight.

CHRISTMAS passed off very quietly among the resident population of this place, but the number of drunken fights among the winter sojourners made considerable stir on the city front. We understand that in the morning a desperate encounter resulted in the biting nearly off from one victim's face of the major portion of an upper lip. In the afternoon, a man known as Long Dan, who formerly drove a dray in the city, stabbed William R. Hill, known as Buckskin Bill, in the left side, inflicting a wound five inches deep, through his left lung, leaving the knife in the wound, which is supposed to be mortal. Dan was locked up in the county jail, and Bill was immediately cared for, and is still alive as we go to press. We forbear publishing any of the conflicting current rumors, but will learn and publish the result of the examination.

BOUND OVER.—Daniel Pollard, who cut Buckskin Bill on Christmas Day in the Pony Saloon, was examined before Recorder McCoy, on Saturday afternoon, and bound over in the sum of $500 to answer a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, at the next term of the Circuit Court. He was remanded to jail, where in default of bail, he still remained last evening, under charge of the Sheriff.

A CHANCE FOR RECOVERY.—We understand that last night William R Hill alias Buckskin Bill, who was stabbed on Christmas, was improving, with a chance for ultimate recovery. According to the statement of Dr Davenport, made before the Recorder at the examination of Pollard the knife entered near the left shoulder [illegible] and under the fourth rib inflicting a wound externally an inch and a half in length, [illegible] which the air of his lungs exuded [illegible] with the blood as the wounded [illegible]. The wound had been probed [illegible] three inches, but testimony shows [illegible] knife was introduced at least five inches. The wound is not necessarily fatal, but it was expected that it would prove so in this particular case.

SLIGHTLY CONFUSED AND BADLY SCARED.—On Saturday afternoon, as a jolly son of Erin became weary of his Christmas keeping, he began casting about for a cosy place to rest, and discovered at the corner of Salmon and Fifth streets, a wagon body turned up [illegible], into which he retired for a snooze. Being troubled with unwelcome dreams, he did not lie very still, and the wagon body tipped over, leaving unconscious Pat to finish his nap on the under side. Shortly after dark he awoke, confused at best, but badly frightened and thoroughly sobered by his situation. He labored in vain to raise the trap, and finally commenced a series of yells, howls, kicks and groans, which attracted a gentleman passing by, who, after proper explanation, assisted in lifting the box and effecting his liberation. From Pat's last remark, we are led to believe he'll eschew wagon-beds if ever he gets jolly again.

ACCIDENT TO THE EXPRESS.—This steamer got into a strong eddy or whirl between here and Oregon City yesterday, and became unmanageable, the vortex drawing her side so far down as to carry away a portion of her guards and wash a few boxes of apples from her deck. She came to her wharf somewhat wrenched, but this morning started again for Oregon City. Being unable to make the riffle she returned, and is now, we understand, about to undergo repairs.

MASONIC INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—The officers of Willamette Lodge, No. 2, and Harmony Lodge, No. 12, F. & A. M., will be installed at their Hall this evening, at 7 o'clock. An oration will be delivered by P. G. M. Amory Holbrook. We learn that all members of the Order in good standing are invited to be present.

PERSONAL.—Col. T. C. English, late Commander of the post at Fort Steilacoom, W. T., arrived with his family on the steamer from Victoria last evening, to enter upon his duties as Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General for this District.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—The patronage of the drama on Saturday evening was fair, and its patrons enjoyed the mirth-splitting presentations to the top of their bent. A good programme is advertised for to-night.

HERE AT LAST.—Charles Barrett has received full files of pictorials, magazines and States papers. Those who wish something good to read to-day will find enough to please them at his counters, besides an admirable lot of New Years' presents.

THE PACIFIC experienced very bad weather on her passage to Victoria, and was obliged to throw overboard some 27 or 30 head of beef cattle shipped hence for the Victoria market.

BARK INDUSTRY, Capt Paul Corno, is in the river, and will probably come up to the city to-day.

THE OREGON is advertised to sail for San Francisco on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock.

Portland R. A. Chapter No. 3.—Special Meeting Tuesday evening, 29th inst., at 7 o'clock. Work in the P. M. Degree. All sojourning companions are invited to attend.

The Story of Life.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

Say, what is life? 'Tis to be born
A helpless Babe, to greet the light
With a sharp wail, as if the morn
Foretold a cloudy noon or night;
To weep, to sleep and weep again,
With sunny smiles between, and then?

And then apace the infant grows
To be a laughing, pulling boy,
Happy, despite his little woes,
Were he but conscious of his joys;
To be, in short, from two to ten,
A merry, merry child; and then?

And then in a coat and trousers clad,
To learn to say the Decalogue,
And break it, an unthinking lad,
With mirth and mischief all agog;
A truant oft by field and fen,
To capture butterflies, and then?

And then, increased in strength and size,
To be, anon, a youth full-grown;
A hero in his mother's eyes,
A young Apollo in his own,
To imitate the ways of men
In fashionable sins; and then?

And then, at least to be a man;
To fall in love; to woo and wed;
With seething brain to scheme and plan;
To gather gold, or toil for bread;
To sue for fame with tongue or pen,
And gain or lose the prize; and then?

And then, in gray and wrinkled Eld,
To mourn the speed of life's decline;
To praise the scenes his youth beheld,
And dwell in memory of Lang Syne;
To dream awhile with darkened ken,
Then creep into his grave, and then?

HOW TO TREAT CHILDREN.—"Anti-Herodism," in Harper, contains the following good word for children:

Pity and love the little children. Tolerate these pets. Comfort Nellie over her dead bird, and don't call Molly's "little white kitty" a "cat." It is enough to break a juvenile heart to have one's darlings snubbed. How would you like to hear your own Frederic Augustus called a "dirty young one?" The little ones have their tragedies and comedies, and laugh and weep more sincerely than you do at Falstaff and Lear. They love, marry, keep house, have children, have weddings and funerals, and dig little graves for dead mice in the garden, and mourn into small white handkerchiefs, and get brother Jim to write an appropriate inscription for its tiny board.

Is not this human nature in little, and in its small way, as deserving of a certain respect? You do not despise your own reflection in a concave mirror, you know. Cherish the children: mend the frocks; don't scold them for broken toys—for man is not more inevitably mortal than playthings. Don't strip their fat shoulders in winter, nor roast them in flannels in dog days, because somebody told you to. Don't drug them; don't "yarb" them; don't stuff them with pastry or starve them on chippy bread; don't send them to infant schools at three, or to fancy balls at ten, nor teach them the commandments earlier than they can remember Mother Goose. Let them have Christmas and Fairy-stories; grandpa's horse-cane rather than Mr. Birch's ferule; Little Bo-Peep, not English Reader; Mary Howitt, not Jamieson's Rhetorix. Give them Wilson's Readers when they want them; not before.

> This distinguished apostle of radicalism returns to his native land after what his admirers consider, not without reason as a series of the greatest oratorical triumphs of his life. Beecher has reached an age beyond which the human faculties are not ordinarily susceptible of further improvement, although it is accordant enough with experience that many years may yet elapse before they undergo any visible decline. Just at a period when a man is intellectually all that he can ever expect to become, Beecher has enjoyed the grandest opportunity likely to fall to him, for intellectual display, and he has so borne himself as to satisfy the expectations of his most partial friends. When the blaze of enthusiasm which just now irradiates his talents, imparting to them a luster which they rather reflect than emit, has died away with the passing occasion, and his recent exhibition of them is viewed apart from any factious glare, the sober judgment of sound observers will still admit that Beecher has achieved and oratorical triumph of which any of the best popular speakers of his time might reasonably be proud, and which none of them has, as yet, equaled. We feel that we but utter the common sentiment of the generous part of our countrymen in expressing our sense of Beecher's service to the Union cause on the other side of the water. He has, as a general rule, spoken in terms of justice and decorum of his political opponents in this country when he has found occasion to allude to them; and in the zeal with which he has sought to turn the tide of prejudice in favor of the Union cause we recognize the spirit of a patriot. Would to God that always, as in his case, party antipathies could cease at the water's edge, and that every American who goes abroad would feel that he has but one country, and that all its citizens stand bound to him by the ties of a common patriotism.

ENCOURAGE CRYING.—A lengthy dissertation has recently been published by a physician of France, on the beneficial influence of groaning and crying on the nervous system. He contends that groaning and crying are the two grand operations by which Nature allays anguish; that those patients who give way to their natural feeling, more speedily recover from accidents and operations than those who suppose it unworthy a man to betray such symptoms of cowardice, as either to groan or cry. He is always pleased by the crying and violent roaring of a patient during the time he is undergoing a violent surgical operation, because he is satisfied that he will thereby soothe his nervous system so as to prevent fever, and insure a favorable termination.

Since John Brown has become so popular, Mrs. John Brown presumes to be rather overbearing. In Uxbridge, Mass., on Friday, she gave birth to two sons and a daughter, and all parties are getting on bravely.—Providence Journal.

MARKET REPORT.

SATURDAY, Dec. 26, 1863, 12 M.

Trade for the past week, both for City and Country has been brisk, for the holyday season. Markets are firm, the only declines or changes noted being confined to Produce. Perhaps the San Francisco steamer, now overdue, may to some extent affect the quoted rates of imports, though so slightly, perhaps, as to make anticipations purely speculative and hence improper.

Bacon—we have to note a decline in Sides of 1@2 cents, and in Hams of 3@4c.

Eggs have declined from 50 to 35c, ℔ dozen, at which latter figure they are quoted to-day.

Chickens, held last week at $4 00, are to-day quoted at $2 50@$3 00.

The decline in these quotations is a natural result of farmers holding back the articles hitherto, stimulating a demand which the past week's receipts more than supplied.

The Retail trade in imported articles, such as toys, and the costlier bijoux, &c., for holyday presents, has been very lively, and put in circulation an amount of small coin for exceeding the usual supply.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect,
ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of [illegible]

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours,
ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
